ABOUT ME

Technophile by nature and a smart worker by action. Prefer to learn practically than theoretically. Keen and fast. Have also acquired sales skill through my work experience. Have acquired all the skills necessary for frontend development and looking for a chance to further improve.

EXPERIENCE

Business Development Associate

Lido Learning (Noida): Feb 2021-April 2021

First to clear the on-ground training phase on the first day itself with the highest package sold

R&D Operator Station Intern

CNH Industrials:

My task was to create a checklist for evaluating the engineering drawings my seniors made. This checklist helped my seniors review their work before sending it for formal evaluation
